THE FLAX MILL & CARAVAN PARK

Nestled in the junction of the Blackwood River and the Boyup Brook, the Boyup Brook Caravan Park has a secluded atmosphere but is only a 10 minute stroll from the town centre. It is located at the old Flax Mill site which is a significant part of Boyup Brook's history. The Mill was in operation from 1939 to 1965 and is the only example in Australia with some buildings still standing.

In picturesque surroundings the complex offers:

- 6 ensuites
- Powered sites
- Spacious camping grounds
- RV friendly ~ free sewage dump and water fill-up

Also available for hire is a Function Room/ Dance Hall upstairs (no chairs or tables)

ADJACENT TO THE CARAVAN PARK:

- Bi-centennial Walk Trail (6kms, wildflowers in season along the River and Brook)
- Bridle Trail to Skeleton Bridge (4km return)
- Music Park and Sound Shell with outdoor adult exercise equipment
- Heated swimming pool and Recreation grounds (official dog exercise area - all droppings must be picked up)
